

Identifying Action Verbs

Layla plays on her school's softball team.

Action verbs describe what someone (or something) does.

Tony dances every Tuesday after school.

Sara and Ricky cooked dinner together.

Candice dreams of becoming a doctor.

Select the verb in the sentences below

Chris and I sing in the elevator.

Chris and I sing in the elevator.

George Orwell eats a cookie every afternoon.

George Orwell eats a cookie every afternoon.

Most of us appreciated Nick Young's yo-yo tricks.

Most of us appreciated Nick Young's yo-yo tricks.

Identifying Verbs

Amanda and the pirate know what they saw during their treasure hunt.

A verb is an action word.

Verbs usually describe what someone (or something) does.

Tony dances every Tuesday after school.

Sara and Ricky cooked dinner together.

Candice dreams of becoming a doctor.

Select the verb(s) in the sentences below

Margaret Atwood will have been judging the banana-peeling contest for three years straight.

Margaret Atwood will have been judging the banana-peeling contest for three years straight.

The game usually ends early, so Haymitch Abernathy walks home.

The game usually ends early, so Haymitch Abernathy walks home.

Chandler Bing and his friends had ridden the Ferris wheel at the fair.

Chandler Bing and his friends had ridden the Ferris wheel at the fair.