

FREE DACA RENEWAL DAY

If your DACA status expires between September 5, 2017 and March 5, 2018, we are here to help. The American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA), in partnership with the Mexican Consulate and our local non-profits, will be doing a free DACA renewal day.

 RSVP required, call (503) 607-0444 ***

Date and time: September 17th. 2017 from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm

Place: Mexican Consulate

1305 SW 12th. Ave, Portland, OR 97201

Each individual will be assessed by our team of AILA attorneys and BIA representatives for renewal eligibility and other reliefs.

What you need to bring to the event:

- Two (2) passport-style photos (2" x 2" with white background).
- Identification documents, including your passport, consular ID and birth certificate.
- Copy of your current EAD card, social security card and driver's license.
- Copy of the approval letter from last DACA.
- If you were granted advance parole, please bring the approval notice.
- If you left the US on advance parole, please bring your passport.
- If you got married since your last renewal, please bring your marriage certificate.
- If you have children, please bring their birth certificate(s).
- If you have any criminal history, please bring it to the appointment.
- Documents of continued presence in the US (such as school records, bank statements, tax fillings, pay stubs, and any other documents).
- Filing fee in the amount of $495.00 payable to "US Department of Homeland Security"
 (if you are unable to pay and you are a Mexican National, the Mexican Consulate may be able to help, (determined on a case by case basis).