4j's Future Chef Cook Off this Saturday. Good luck, Zion & Ava!

Human Growth and Development Classes Complete

Fifth graders completed their first Human Growth and Development unit last week. They had many questions and were polite and respectful during the presentations.

Writing Opinions

Our class continues to work on persuasive essays this week. Most students have a good start on their rough draft essays. This week students will continue writing their rough drafts and begin the revision and editing process.

March/April Book Project

Students have been assigned a book project for March/April. The genre is Fantasy or Adventure. Instructions for the project have been sent home. Students have a choice to do either a Pop-up Book Project or a Book Commercial. The due date for this project has been extended to Friday, April 21st.

Volunteer Appreciation Tea Approaching

McCornack will be celebrating our amazing parent and community volunteers who help make our school such a great place to learn and grow. We hope that every volunteer will be able to join us in the library next Thursday, April 27th, at 1:00 p.m. as we share our appreciation and honor their service to our school.

OAKS/Smarter Balanced Science Assessment

Fifth graders have worked very hard this year learning core concepts and skills in all curricular areas. They will begin the first in a series of statewide assessments this week beginning with the Science OAKS Assessment. English Language Arts and math assessments will also take place in late April and May. I will send home an updated schedule, as well as helpful tips for supporting your child as we get closer to those assessment dates.
