Dear Colleagues:

This is a reminder that the last day of school for students, Thursday, June 17, 2010, is a full day of school.

In years prior, the last day of school for students has been a half day. Nevertheless, when the District created the 2009-10 school year calendar, we were required to make substantial changes from the 2008-09 school year calendar. These changes were due to the on-going financial crisis we are still facing.

Given the need to cut days from the calendar and the District's commitment to not cutting instructional time, it was not possible to schedule the last day for students as half day. Cutting days was a difficult decision for the principals and administrators partaking in this measure.

Thank you for your understanding of the difficult times we are facing. Please don't hesitate to contact me should you have any questions.

Best regards,

Celia

To laugh often, to win the affection of children, to win the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends, to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others, to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch...to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived...this is to have succeeded.
