

Human Trafficking Book Event

February 24th from 5:30 to 7:30

Tsunami Books at 2585 Willamette St, Eugene

The format will be a discussion of the book "Renting Lacy".

Books can be purchased from the author's non-profit organization, Shared Hope, at sharedhope.org.

We encourage every concerned parent...every concerned citizen...to attend, even if you haven't had a chance to read the book, as the discussion of the subject matter will be very powerful and informative.

Also, please spread the word and encourage your friends and contacts to attend as well.

A little about the author and the book for your information....

Author - Linda Smith, President and Founder, Shared Hope International

In 1998, while a member of the U.S. Congress, Linda Smith traveled to Falkland Road in Mumbai, India – one of the worst brothel districts in the world. The hopeless faces of desperate women and children forced into prostitution compelled Linda to found Shared Hope International.

Shared Hope International exists to rescue and restore women and children in crisis. We are leaders in a worldwide effort to prevent and eradicate sex trafficking and slavery through education and public awareness.

The organization is based in Vancouver Washington and very active in the states of Washington and Oregon.

Book – Renting Lacy A Story of America's Prostituted Children

Step into the darkness of the trafficking underworld. Meet the actual people who live there. Hear their words...

Decide for yourself. This is perhaps the most shocking book you'll ever read... but essential reading for every concerned parent...every concerned American.

How do these children become trafficked, why do they stay with their trafficker, what can we do to help...
