Dear Principal Chinn,

Thank you in advance for taking the time to read this email,

I'm confident that I am able to captivate any audience and will guarantee an impact on those who listen. With 20 years of experience, I've "mouthed" my way through a Master's Degree in Social Work, became an author, mouth-painter, founder of Camp Attitude, and a father. I have presented to many local schools and most recently visited Albany Options School where I had the great opportunity to meet many young people with promising futures. I have attached an article written about the experience which was on the front page of Albany's Democrat Herald.

I feel strongly about reaching out to our local kids and am offering my presentation free of charge. Students are looking for direction and positive role models more than ever. They face a bombardment of negative influences from many sources that can alter their lives forever. My aim is to change the way that they view their lives and the world around them. A positive attitude can make an enormous difference in everyone's walk in life.

"We have had Mr. Heagy at our school on three separate occasions and would not hesitate to have him again. Mr. Heagy has a unique way of connecting with the students and gives them a new way of looking at their problems...You can literally hear a "nose ring" drop."

My background: I'm a nationally recognized motivational speaker from Albany, Oregon. I was paralyzed from the neck down at age 18, following a surfing accident and have lived my life working to inspire others for the past thirty years. My life calling has been to encourage people who are hurting, feel invisible, or who need some direction to overcome their hardships. I feel my presentation is pertinent to the struggles faced by young people and my topics usually include: finding the ability to overcome adversity or disability, embracing individual uniqueness, the benefits of accepting others, and how to make the "dream work through teamwork." I have presented to all ages, but my focus is K-12 students in Oregon.

I guarantee that my classroom presentation or school assembly will inspire, motivate, and empower both the students and the staff. Some local schools that I've recently spoken to are Churchill High School, Cal Young Middle School, the Children’s Farm Home (Corvallis), Scio High School, Linus Pauling Middle School, South Eugene High School, South Albany High School, Clover Ridge Elementary, Waverly Elementary, Central Linn Elementary, and also Oregon State University. If you would like more information, please visit my website at www.rollonron.com, or by visiting my artist page on the Mouth and Foot Painters Association website at www.mfpausa.com under the drop-down menu “American Artists.” I have also attached three letters of recommendation and the recent news article from the Democrat Herald.

Thank you again for your consideration. Look forward to hearing from you soon,

Ron Heagy, Jr.
