

Assistance for Relatives Raising Children

Interested in after school activities for your grandchild?

Maybe need school or health supplies?

Or assistance paying for school break camp?

If you are a grandparent or relative raising a child under 18 and are at least 55 years of age, you may be eligible for support through the Family Caregiver Respite Program.

Call 541-682-3353 and ask about a home visit from one of our Senior Connections Coordinators who will assist you in applying for RAPP (Relatives as Parents Program) funds.
