Hello All -

We wanted to share information about some EA learning opportunities that will be made available to staff next week on Friday, January 28. Sessions will be asynchronous and staff can schedule as appropriate for their team/building. There will be a collection of offerings that were recorded from previous professional learning days as well as some new sessions. We encourage staff to chose from sessions they were unable to attend previously.

Because of staffing changes and newer hires we ask that you help get the word out and share this with all EAs and other stakeholders in your building or program.

Considerations:

- More details and session descriptions will be sent next week.
- Newer staff will be encouraged to attend specific foundational sessions that they were not able to join previously. These sessions will be highlighted with guidance.

If you have questions, please contact Reid Shepard, shepard\_r@4j.lane.edu, or Marlee Litten, litten@4j.lane.edu.

Have a great weekend!
