Team,

I have some news to share about administrator staffing shifts for the remainder of the school year.

Morgan Christensen will continue as the Title IX coordinator through the end of the school year. A few weeks ago I shared that the district had asked Morgan to take on this critical role through spring break, temporarily stepping away from his position as principal of Kennedy Middle School and Chinese Immersion Elementary School. This has been extended and Morgan will continue as the point of contact for Title IX and Oregon sexual harassment law through the rest of the spring.

Jennifer Hebard is stepping up from her role as the assistant principal of Kennedy and Chinese Immersion to serve as the schools' interim principal through the end of the school year. Jen served as principal of Family School and Chinese Immersion at the Crest Drive site starting in 2016 and 2017, then moved to the Kennedy site as assistant principal when the Chinese Immersion school relocated there this fall.

Scott Marsh is moving from Edison Elementary to serve as the interim assistant principal at Chinese Immersion and Kennedy Middle for the rest of the school year. Scott is a veteran administrator with more than 30 years of experience as an educator, including serving as principal of Edison, Madison Middle School, and Parker Elementary until it closed in 2011.

The Title IX coordinator position and the Edison principal opening will be posted soon for the 2022–23 school year. Edison will be supported by a team of retired 4J administrators for the rest of the spring.

Thank you to Morgan, Jen and Scott for taking on these new roles for the last few months of the school year.
