Good morning,

The Eugene Emeralds are excited to announce that Sluggo’s Home Run Reading Challenge is back thanks to our sponsors at Kendall Auto Group and Wildish!

This program is a fun, easy way to get the students in your school excited for reading, and give them a chance to receive TWO FREE EMERALDS TICEKTS! This program is adaptable for all reading levels and we work hard to make sure it’s easy on you and your teachers.

This year, for the safety of all students and teachers, we have decided to move the program digital. Schools will be able to set up a Zoom meeting with Sluggo! This fun video assembly will include Sluggo getting your students excited about reading and this amazing program. To schedule your assembly make sure you get back to me with your dates as soon as possible. We will be starting our zoom assemblies on February 28th.

We will still be delivering the bookmarks and letters to each school as we have done in the past. Teachers will also receive a fun video that Sluggo has produced (he’s very proud of it) explaining how to fill out their bookmark.

One thing that will be different this year will be the deadline for final numbers. As you may know, the Emeralds have moved to a full season team. With this being said, final numbers will need to be turned in by Friday April 15.

I hope you, and your school, are able to take part in this free, fun program where Reading = Emeralds Baseball! If you are interested in participating this year please let me know so we can get you signed up and ready to read! If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to me via email or by phone at 541-342-5367 ext. 14.

We are looking forward to getting back to schools and promoting reading.
