Hello Teachers,

Our district writing curriculum, Being a Writer, has transitioned to a new digital platform, and so we now have updated instructions for digital access.

To get access, you can go to this link to create your Learning Portal account:

join.ccclearningportal.org and follow the account creation steps. You do not need to enter your employee ID to register; you can leave that field blank. Once logged in, you will need to activate your license and select your grade level: Being a Writer 2e; __ Grade. (The 2e stands for 2nd Edition, which is what we are using.) Then you will need to refresh the portal, and all the resources will appear under the resources tab. Please do not activate SIPP licenses unless directed by the Title TOSA.

Please let me know if you encounter any problems or have questions! You can also email the company's tech support directly and include your email, school building, and the issue: support@collaborativeclassroom.org

Kind regards,
Sarah
