Dear colleagues,

Happy Monday! A few more administrative changes for 2023–24:

College and Career Readiness / Career and Technical Education Administrator: Ed Mendelssohn. Ed has been selected as the new CCR/CTE administrator, taking over from Tia Holliday who is retiring this summer. Ed has 20 years of experience in education administration in 4J and Springfield schools. Since 2020, he has worked alongside Tia as the TOSA assisting in the development and implementation 4J's CTE program, in addition to working with teachers and admin to develop and implement the 9th grade humanities programs. Ed has also served as 4J's high school summer programs administrator for the past three years, developing, coordinating and supervising the very popular summer intensive program. Ed's experience and expertise provide him with the skills to continue growing 4J's creative and innovative CTE programs.

Chávez Elementary School Principal: Kevin Gordon. Welcome back to 4J, Kevin! While he will be new to Chávez, Kevin is not new to our district. He served as principal at Camas Ridge and at Adams elementary schools for a combined seven years before leaving 4J to be principal at Laurel Elementary School in Junction City two years ago. He previously taught at Laurel Elementary and at 4J's Parker Elementary (now closed) for a combined 13 years. Kevin is an excellent administrator and is committed to doing what is best for students, staff and families. We're glad Kevin has rejoined 4J. With his extensive experience and knowledge of 4J, he will be a great leader at Chávez.

Please join me in congratulating Ed and welcoming back Kevin!
