From UO:

Dear Eugene SD, Elementary & Middle School Principals,
Do you have teachers looking for extra support in the classroom? We have UO Education undergrads hoping to complete their required Field Study in classrooms with teachers. To help them find a host teacher for 2023-24, we have created the following host an Intern RSVP --

LINK <https://tinyurl.com/UOHostFieldStudy>

Please have your teachers RSVP ASAP, or no later than the end of the school year. We will publish anonymous placement opportunities for UO Education students to pick from when they register for term classes. We will not release your teachers' names until a student has selected their site. Then the teacher will then receive confirmation of student sign up, and the student will be responsible for reaching out to their selected teacher with an introductory email. See details below.

Seeking Host Mentors for UO Education Field Study Interns

The College of Education works with local districts and human service agencies to secure field study sites for students in our Education Foundations, Family and Human Services, and Special Education programs. These educational experiences allow our students the opportunity to gain exposure to multiple settings, working with a variety of populations – while providing hosts extra support in their classroom or agency.

Educational Foundations (EdF)

EdF interns are looking to gain hands-on experience supporting elementary teachers in classrooms. Your intern will be simultaneously enrolled in a learning, teaching, and assessment class that provides an academic context for their field study.

- A minimum of 3 hours a week for 10 weeks
- Faculty-supported field study experience
- Winter & Spring term sign up, multi-term option

Family Human Services (FHS)

FHS interns need experience working with local community partners and governmental services serving at-risk, underserved and vulnerable populations in a broad range of areas: food, housing, climate insecurity, sustainable non-profit planning, academic, health, and wellness.

- 6 or 9 hours a week for 10 weeks,
- Requires site supervisory support sessions
- Faculty-supported field study experience (2 onsite mtgs/term)
- Fall, Winter & Spring term sign up, multi-term option

Special Education (SPED)

SPED interns are looking for opportunities to engage directly with individuals with disabilities in special education settings, such as Title 1, reading intervention, life skills, behavioral supports, and inclusive and community support programs.

- 3, 6, or 9 hours a week for 10 weeks
- Faculty-supported field study experience
- Fall, Winter, & Spring term sign up, multi-term option

EDF

100+ interns
W & S terms

FHS

50+ interns
most terms

SPED

50+ interns
each term
