Good morning, leaders,

I have a bittersweet update to share with you. Director of School Safety and Emergency Management Kari Skinner will be leaving 4J at the end of this month to take on the role of public safety administrator at Beaverton School District. Her last day with 4J will be October 26.

Since joining 4J, Kari has consistently placed student and staff safety at the forefront, overseeing strategic safety measures and initiating important safety programs.

I am sure that all agree that Kari has been a wonderful colleague, and her expertise and effervescent enthusiasm will be missed. In the coming days, we will be initiating a search for a new director of school safety and emergency management. If you are interested in participating in that process please reach out as I welcome your experience and knowledge on key qualities to look for as we continue to strength our safety efforts.

Please join me in thanking Kari for her service and wishing her the best in this new adventure.

Kindly,
Jen
