Hello Allan!

I hope your staff enjoyed the teacher appreciation scones we dropped off last week! My name is Shiloh Powers and I am a former Springfield high school teacher turned financial advisor here in Eugene. We love supporting our teachers in any way we can. One way that we try to add value to teachers is by providing complimentary seminars on preparing for and navigating retirement as an Oregon educator. Our most popular offering "Retirement by Design" help teachers

- Translate their vision for retirement into tangible goals
- Learn investment strategies to help design the retirement they want
- Discuss how to add flexibility to their strategy to handle unexpected events and stay on track

Our next offering is coming up on January 23rd at 4:30pm. Would you mind sharing this info and this registration link, Retirement by Design Seminar, with your staff?

I am also happy to partner with you to bring the seminar to your school. I can adjust the length of the presentation to fit any staff or professional development meeting. Just let me know how I can help and we will make it happen!
