

AVID 1/09/20

Essential Question: How can I determine the level of a question?

CW: Costa's Questions

HW: No HW

Agenda

1. Writing Prompt
2. One-Pager
3. Costa's Levels of Inquiry Notes
4. Quiet work time

Open Ended Question

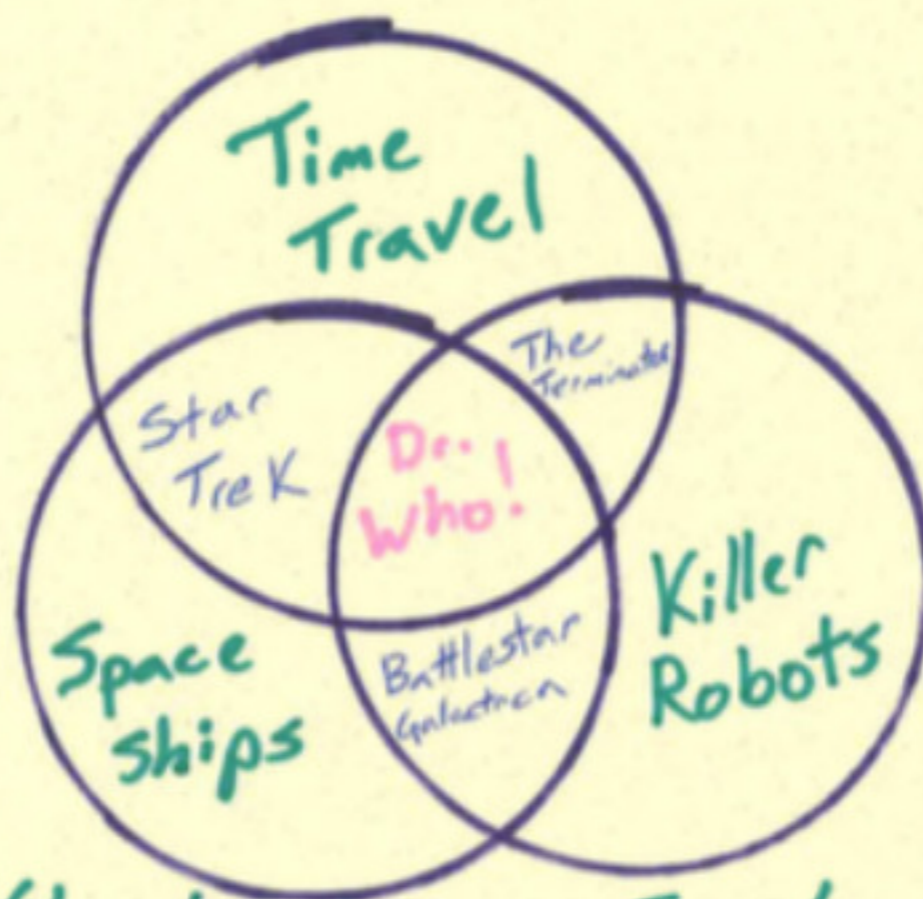

Write down five things that define who you are, listing them as “I am _____,” statements.
Take a few minutes to think about each one. Which quality feels the best?

One-Pager Instructions

- Choose a Costa Vocabulary Word
- Look up definition and rewrite in your own words
- Draw a picture representing your vocab word
- Write two questions that start with your word
- In 15 minutes we will begin presenting our one pagers

Compare

Verb: To examine two or more objects or ideas looking for similarities.

How do the best sci-fi shows compare?

Can we compare the main elements of a good sci-fi show?

Focused Notes

EQ: How can I determine the level of a question?

Compare with table group - add revisions, talk about meaning of different levels, add examples of questions

Reflection:

- Respond to the following questions:
 - How many levels are there in Costa's Levels of Thinking?
 - What is the difference between Level 1 thinking and Level 3 thinking?
 - Which level of thinker do you currently relate to most? Which level of thinker do you think you must become to be a successful student?

Quiet work time

1. Work on missing assignments (for any class)
2. Work on math hw that was assigned/due today
3. Algebra students - look on Ms. Cockram's blog for tonight's HW

Quiz

What color is the duck in the story?

- Level One
- Level Two
- Level Three

Why did she feel sad about Mandy but not about Richard?

- Level One
- Level Two
- Level Three

What did the father say when Sally said she wasn't going to school?

- Level One
- Level Two
- Level Three

Why do you think the author made Sally such a sad character?

- Level One
- Level Two
- Level Three

What is the difference between the tiger and the lion?

- Level One
- Level Two
- Level Three

What do you think Sally should have done? Explain.

- Level One
- Level Two
- Level Three