

/Michael Carrancho, Caleb Reese and Taylor Langworthy

PSA Script

Scene 1: (TEXT) Practice Makes Perfect, by: Taylor Langworthy, Michael Carrancho, and Caleb Reese

Scene 2: (TEXT) Have you ever wondered how much work a professional athlete or how much an accountant has to work?

Scene 3: (Video)

Camera Angle: Dolly

Setting: School Gym

Action: Shooting a lay-up

Description: The camera follows the driver and he shoots a lay-up

Scene 4: (TEXT) In many ways, practice can make your whole career

Scene 5: (VIDEO)

Camera Angle: Panoramic

Setting: School Gym

Action: Caleb, Michael, Taylor all shoot threes and make

Description: Showing with that practicing we can all make baskets

Scene 6: (TEXT) Every Professional Athlete will practice every single day

Scene 7: (PHOTO) Mike Trout swinging a bat,

Scene 8: (TEXT) Having a positive attitude can help practice seem more fun.

Scene 9: (VIDEO)

Camera Angle: Eye Level

Setting: School Gym

Action: Caleb has a bad mood about practice

Description: Since Caleb wasn't fond of practice he got benched

Scene 10: (TEXT) Practice is not only for sports but also for education, music and communication.

Scene 11: (VIDEO)

Camera Angle: Eye Level

Setting: Ms. Loo's room

Action: Michael talks on the phone talking to some one on the phone

Description: Michael is communicating with his boss

Scene 12: (PHOTO) Picture of Taylor when he was younger playing baseball and older playing baseball. Showing what practice can do to help.

Scene 13: (TEXT) Just because you practice. Doesn't mean you can practice once a week, you have to practice more.

Scene 14: (VIDEO)

Camera Angle: Eye Level

Setting: Band Room

Action: Asher plays his instrument

Description: Asher practices his instrument

Scene 15: (VIDEO)

Camera Angle: Low Angle

Setting: Mr. Schiff's room

Action: Taylor practices his math

Description: With practice Taylor aced his test

Scene 16: (TEXT) With practice you can ace all communication, music, education, sports

Scene 17 (TEXT) Just remember to practice!

Scene 18 (PHOTO) Picture of all three of us practicing.