Movie Review

I am reviewing the movie "Daddy's Home". It is a comedy movie made in 2015, the movies stars are Will Ferrell and Mark Wahlberg. It is about a step-dad that seeks attention from his wife's kids. He is making progress until his wife's ex comes and stays with them. He is clearly better than him in every way. The ex wants to get his family back while the step-dad is trying to keep it. This story was very funny and entertaining.

This year. They are coming out with Daddy's Home 2. It is about the grandparents that come to visit. This will be a good sequel because the first one was hilarious. It included fighting, fake racism(I'll explain), and struggles. In the movie there is a black man names Grif. The step-dad is told to fire him, so he does. However, he then stays at his house because the dad invited him to stay. This movie has a lot of these subplots or stories inside of the main story. One amazing thing about this movie is that it has a repetitive cliffhanger at the end. The ex dad is better than the real dad. Then at the end another dad comes that is even better than the ex dad.

Overall, I would rate this movie an 8.5 out of 10. It was a great comedy for teenagers and above. I t had lots of jokes and humor. It could have had a better plot, but other than that I would recommend this movie to most people.
