

MY TRIP TO GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

ENTERING GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

To drive the most beautiful place in Montana is amazing, Glacier National Park is going to be amazing and I get to go with my friends and my friend's dad which going to be so fun! I can't wait to be at the top of the road to the sunshine!

We had just entered Glacier National Park and we see a mountain with snow on it. We were very excited to see what we were going to find next.

We continue on the road when we see a waterfall out the window along the windy section of our drive.

After we see a waterfall we see a huge lake with mountains all around it. The clouds were swirled around the tips of the mountains. We all took pictures it was so cool.

We reach a part of the trip called the road to the sunshine where we drive up to the top of a mountain to see the sunrise. In this picture my friend Colten was looking off a cliff on the trip to the top of the mountain.

When we got almost to the top of the mountain we saw a tour guide showing a tour about a snow barricade and how fragile they are and that it only happens after a small avalanche. We stopped for a while and looked at something I've never seen before because I live in Eugene where it rain but does not snow often.

We were almost to the top of the mountain when we saw this valley with mountains all around with some clouds above them it looked so cool when we finally reached the top we saw the most amazing sight.

We had reached to the sunrise it was so cool from the top of the mountain the clouds had covered the sun so perfect and the cloud picture looked so cool. But we had to head down so I could play in my baseball tournament in Whitefish.

On the way down we saw this big clearing, filled with green trees every where it reminded me of Oregon. Glacier National Park was so fun a cool, and I don't wan't to go.

On the way down the other side of the mountain we saw this very long away shot of the mountain we saw early. This shot marked the end of the trip to Glacier and the start of my baseball tournament.
