BELL RINGER RESPONSE SHEET: WEEK 6

Monday MISTAKES

Correct the errors in the following paragraph.

The titanic reckage is disapearing. Sunk in 1912 the ship has survived over one-hundred years, but a newly-discovered speecies of rust-eating bacteria is slowly consumming the 50,000 tons of Iron that make up the sunken liner. Scientists estimate that the great ship might only have until approximately 2030 before the tiny organisms have consumed it entirely and its gone forever
