

Things Fall Apart

Novel Project

Due Monday, February 3rd Worth 100 points

Short Film: 5-10 minutes

- Choose a scene from the novel that represents a theme or turmoil characteristics from the novel and create a short film re-enacting that scene.
- Adapt the scene into modern times.
- Film must be 5-10 minutes long.
- You may work with partner(s) on this project. Please speak to me about who is in your group.
- Get creative!!

Interpretive Painting

- Create a painting that represents a theme or turmoil characteristic from Things Fall Apart.
- Painting must be at least 12"x18" but it can be larger.
- Painting must be detailed and show evidence of artistic ability.
- Aside from that, you have creative freedom!!

Podcast

- Create a 10-15 minute informative podcast about themes in Things Fall Apart.
- Ideas could be:
- Discussing the effects of colonialism on both Africa and Europe within the novel
- Discuss the development of Okonkwo throughout the novel.
- These are not required ideas. You can choose one if you'd like or come up with your own.
- When creating your podcast, incorporate one or more characteristics of turmoil in literature. It is not required to explicitly state the characteristic(s) in the podcast, but it needs to be implied or a theme throughout the podcast.
- You may work with partner(s) on this project. Please speak to me about who is in your group.

Create Your Own! (I do need to approve it first)

- Come up with an appropriate project and come to me with the details.