

Act III; Scene III-Log Entry #8

Why does Iago want the handkerchief?

As Emilia holds the handkerchief ('napkin'), she reflects that Iago 'hath a hundred times/Wooed me to steal it'. Why?

Predict what Iago might want to do with Desdemona's handkerchief. What indications are there that this seemingly insignificant object will prove to be of great importance later on?