Understanding the causes and effects of the American Revolution
25 points
→ Describe the relationship between the colonies and Great Britain after the French and Indian War and before the Battles at Lexington and Concord (Between 1763 1775). Support with details/evidence. (5 pts) → Why was the Continental Army considered the underdog? (Why can the face-off between the Colonies and England be compared to David and Goliath?) Support with details/evidence. (5 pts)

→ Change one situation/event between 1763 - 1783 and explore/hypothesize how that would result in a different outcome. (examples What if King George III acknowledged the grievances of the Committees of Correspondence? What if the colonists were given representation in Parliament? What if the French did not j us in the war and become our ally? What if the Sons of Liberty didn't throw the tea into the harbor? What if	oin
John Hancock would have been appointed Army General instead of Washington?) (5 pts.)
