

Name _____

Date

Due Thursday, Oct. 2nd

The West

Use the map to answer the questions.

Did you know? Without the Oregon Trail, Washington, Oregon and California might never have become part of the United States. This 2,000 mile (3,200 km) route was the only way to get from the mid-west to the west. Many settlers walked barefoot the entire way—through deserts and over mountains!

1. How many cities larger than 50,000 people does California have? _____
2. What city would you find at 45°N and 123°W? _____
3. What is the state capital of Washington? _____
4. Salinas is which direction from Bellingham? _____
5. Is Port Angeles or Colville closer to Klamath Falls? _____
6. The Dalles is a city on the Oregon Trail route.
Approximately how far would you have to walk barefoot to reach the coast? _____
7. Oakland is directly east of which city? _____
8. How far is it between Redding and Spokane? _____
9. What is the approximate latitude and longitude of Barstow, California? _____
10. Which direction would you travel from the nearest coast to Ontario? _____

