

Should We Impeach Trump?

Nabikshya Rayamajhi

January 11th 2018

Yearbook

6th period

As I walk outside, in the swarming heat, I see stares at me. People look at me as if I'm strange, like I'm an alien. They're looking at me and look down at me because of how I look, of what I believe in, and where my family is from. This has been going on for 3 years now. Yes, more than 1095 days. All this time facing racism, sexism, and any other form of discrimination. This is what will happen if we continue to have Trump as our president. This is how innocent people will feel just because of being themselves. Donald J. Trump is someone who is not capable of being in office. He has many flaws, and some would say he is the flaw of the country. He doesn't know what he is doing, he is very discriminatory and childish.

As we can all tell Donald Trump never knows what he is doing. He makes many statements and promises that do not make sense and haven't even been started on. We all know his famous promise that he will build a wall on the border of the US and Mexico. If we think about it, this wall is going to be a humongous project many people need to work on. The Great Wall of China is approximately 5,500 miles long and took 200 years to build. The US/Mexico border is 1,954 miles long. As the times are different it won't take American over 50 years to build the border wall but researcher have estimated that it will take at about 5-6 years. This is far too long to make a barrier that will cost more than 15 billion dollars just because of a racist point of view. Another part of the wall promise that is unreasonable is Trump thinking that he can make Mexico pay for it. You can't make another government pay for something just because you said so. Even if you threaten them with cutting of trades, if they don't want to, they won't. This will cause the US to pay for the wall. Another example is that Donald Trump thinks global warming is not real. He strongly believes that it is a hoax and scientists don't know what they're talking about. Many studies have proven that the earth indeed is getting hotter mainly because of pollution in the air. There are actual facts to prove this point including that glaciers are melting when they are not supposed to. Even after all the evidence, Trump still doesn't believe in this dangerous situation that can affect the world so much in a couple of years. He even pulled the US out of the Paris Agreement that helped solve issues to global warming. He is putting the world at great danger because the US being a powerful nation can help so much with this cause. He has no knowledge in science yet he doesn't believe the experts.

The next reason why Donald Trump should be impeached is because he is very discriminatory. He continuously hates on people not like him. He is famous for being rude to women. He has no respect for women and he treats us like objects. He views us as if we are nothing but being pretty and if we are not, we are worthless. At a ice skating Olympics game he said "Wonderful looking while on the ice but up close and personal, she could only be described as attractive if you like a woman with a bad complexion who is built like a linebacker." He reduced her worth as a person because she wasn't attractive to him. He acted as if she was there to be pretty to her and not for the real reason, her to show her talent. He is claiming that her values are only her face and not what she is capable to do. The next reason that shows he is discriminatory is when he is racist. He is racist to any person of color. He is very racist to Middle Easterns and sees them as terrorists. He banned them because since majority are Muslim, they are all terrorists. ISIS is a well known terrorist group that is relevant right now. Many know that they are Muslim. He thinks just because they are Muslim that all other Muslims are terrorists. Due to his racist thoughts, he banned all the Muslim majority countries for a time period. The people living in the Middle East are also affected by the attacks. They are suffering so much because of it. They were dying and he wouldn't let them come to a place that is safe. He is acting like that terrorists only exists in people who follow the Islamic faith. The Islamic faith consists of not harming others and only respecting others. ISIS is not a representation of Muslims because they even bombed a Mosque, a Muslim place of worship, in the summer of 2017. If they bomb a place of worship for the religion they somehow represent, they are not representations for that religion. There are hundreds of non-Muslim terrorists including Nazis and Bodu Bala Sena. We all have those bad seeds in the bunch. The last way Trump is discriminatory is because he makes fun of a disabled person. A disabled reporter was going against Trump's idea and it was on the news. He then saw it and on a podium in front of thousands of people, he imitated him and his disability. He made fun of someone for being different and something they struggle with. That to me, doesn't seem presidential or basic sense of manner.

Lastly he is super childish for a person who is 71 years old or a person past the age of 5. He is immature and makes statement a kindergartener makes. One example is a tweet he made about the nuclear bomb. As we know Twitter is a special place for Trump. One time Kim Jong Un said how his nuclear button is always on his desk and prepared to bomb any place. Then Trump replied with my button is his nuclear button is "much bigger" than North Korea's. A person who is in the highest position of the most powerful country is talking about how his nuclear button is bigger than someone else's like a small kid. The size of the button doesn't matter when it can destroy many cities and kill so many people. Another time Trump was very immature is when Anderson Cooper, a journalist, told him he was childish. Anderson Cooper brought up how Trump retweeted his wife, Melania, and Ted Cruz's wife, Heidi, next to each other. Donald then said sarcastically, "I thought it was a nice picture of Heidi." He was trying to make fun of Cruz's wife and saying she is not good looking. Cooper then replied, "Come on, you're running for president of the United States." As we all expected Trump said "Look I didn't start it," like a five year old. As you can see from these two statements, he acts like a small child. A president can't be acting like this at all.

Donald Trump is very clueless being the president or any person in charge of something. He is very discriminatory towards people of color, women and disabled. Lastly he is very childish and doesn't act professional. His disrespectful behavior will lead to many feuds between races, genders and countries and will only tear us apart. We must reunite as one to stop this injustice before we all damage ourselves from war. We are all trying to be happy and want happiness for our loved ones. We are all working hard for our dreams. We must support each other for the good of this country and humanity. Trump will only bring hatred into the world and we will be going backward on our journey to world peace. To stop this, we must impeach him. He can no longer be president. There are so many petitions you can sign to help this cause and if you do find one, please sign it. "No one is born hating another person because of the color of his skin, or his background, or his religion. People must learn to hate, and if they can learn to hate, they can be taught to love, for love comes more naturally to the human heart than its opposite," Nelson Mandela.