SECTION 2

Pets

Me and my family aren't really big animal people. We have two pets and we love them but unless it's an animal that's really easy to take care of that's probably our limit. Me and my sisters have a dog named Lily and my brother has a bearded dragon named Horizon.

This was Lily a few months ago.

At the right is a picture of Horizon when we first got him.

The job that I would really want for most of my life is to be a Physical Therapist. Although I would probably have to do some extra years of college, I love working with kids and would love to see them grow stronger and get healthier. I think I would want to be a Physical Therapist up in Portland at Randall Children's Hospital.
