Learning in Kindergarten

Reading: We will be spending time this week reviewing letters and sounds we have learned so far. We will also be practicing segmenting and blending sounds into words.

Writing: We will be talking and writing about New Years goals this week.

Math: Review work with counting, adding, place value, and calendar.

Welcome Back!

I hope you all had a wonderful break and were able to spend time with loved ones. We will not be checking new books out until next week from the Library, but please help your kinders remember to return their library books!

Homework

Suggested:

Read nightly for 20 minutes

Write a sentence using one or more of our sight words! (I, like, the, and, see, to, a, we)

Play a board game!

Important Reminders
