Learning in Kindergarten

Reading: Last week we worked on the sight words “a” and “the”, this week our words are “and”, “are”, and “to”. We will be reading passages with these words combined with CVC (consonant-vowel-consonant) words.

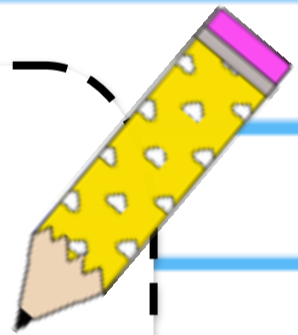

Writing: We will be editing sentences to make sure that they have a capital at the beginning and a period at the end.

Math: We will be working on comparing numbers, addition, subtraction, and place value.

Shoes

Just a friendly reminder to send your kindergartner in shoes that they can manage on their own. Shoe laces can become a hazard if they come untied. Kinders are not too young to learn to tie their shoes!

Homework

Suggested:

Read nightly for 20 minutes

Have your kinder make up a verbal story about an animal of their choice.

Practice breaking apart teen numbers into 10 and 1's.
