

Room D4 Kindergarten News

Week of March 3, 2025

Learning in Kindergarten

Reading: Our sight words this week will be “as” and “has”. We will be reading passages with sight words we have learned combined with CVC (consonant-vowel-consonant) words. We have also begun our 3rd reading unit which is about how America has changed over time.

Writing: We will be writing about how things have changed over time.

Math: We will continue work with addition, subtraction, and comparing numbers.

Tie-dye Artist in Residence this week.

We will be enjoying lessons about color and tie-dye this week with a tie-dye artist. At the end of the week we will get to tie-dye our own shirts! Thank you so much for all of you that stepped in to volunteer to help with this! If you want to but have not had a chance to sign up here is the link!
