Week of March 10, 2025

Learning in Kindergarten

Reading: Our sight word this week is “was”. We will also be working on being able to differentiate the long and short vowel sounds. As always we will be reading words we know and continuing work with CVC words.

Writing: We will continue writing about how life in America has changed. We will write a paragraph together with a topic sentence, key details, and a concluding sentence.

Math: We are going to work on doing addition and subtraction problems together, making sure that we pay close attention to the + and - symbols.

Tie-dye

We had so much fun with our Tie-dye Artist Tianna last week! Thank you so much to the parents that were able to come in and help us! We will be getting our shirts back this week!
